

Spreads and Fillings for Bread Snacks

Assortment

5/2017

For more than 20 years we have developed and produced spreads and fillings for the snack market.

Our performance in innovation is our guarantee for first class products with continuous high quality.

We ensure high production standards with constant quality management, through our sustainable procurement and standardised workflow.

The IFS certification in higher quality level is an expression of our company's conviction.

Our products are manufactured without use of artificial flavour enhancers, artificial additives, preservatives and food colourings. Their intense and exceptional tastes are the results of high quality natural ingredients, first class recipes and gentle methods of production.

Our research and development departments take trends from national and international snack-trends and the to-go-markets to create attractive bread snack solutions and sales concepts. Our snack consultants' expertise and customer service zeroes in at a measurable and calculable added-value for our customers.
